Announcing The Dr. Donald C. "Ozzie" Asbjornson Scholarship Competition Winners

KEY BISCAYNE, FL. — July 15, 2014 — The L.D. Pankey Foundation is proud to announce its second annual The Dr. Donald C. "Ozzie" Asbjornson Scholarship Competition Winners. Available to young, dental students and residents to attend The Pankey Institute's 2014 Annual Meeting. Named in Dr. Donald C. "Ozzie" Asbjornson's honor, a giant in the Pankey Family, teacher, mentor, friend and beloved by all, it is truly fitting to have a student scholarship named after him as he was very influential in shaping so many young dentist's minds. The purpose of this scholarship is to support the dentists of tomorrow and encourage a culture of lifelong learning. Scholarship recipients receive complimentary registration to Pankey's Annual Meeting in South Beach, Florida, September 18-20, 2014, as well as a stipend for travel. Recipients are also paired with a mentor throughout the conference. The approximate value of the scholarship is $1,300.

Ricki Braswell, CEO & President, The L.D. Pankey Dental Foundation said, "The Pankey Institute is THE ONE PLACE that can boast a world renowned faculty of practicing dentists and dental technicians who inspire dentists to envision the practice of their dreams while supplying them with the necessary tools to put those dreams into practice. The greatest gift we could give to the next generation of dentists is a chance to experience the confidence, peace of mind, and fulfillment that only a Pankey Institute experience can provide. We congratulate our 2014 winners and are honored to have such a stellar group representing the best of our nation's dental schools. We look forward to showing them that they too can achieve the goal of creating a comprehensive, patient centered practice."
