

TREATMENT PLANNING AND CASE PRESENTATION

June 11 - 12, 2021

Systemize Your Approach to Treatment!

This interactive lecture will present a systemized approach to treatment planning and case presentation. We will look at the decision points and data necessary to plan for success in the areas of Aesthetics and Function as well as looking at restorative and biologic risk factors. An individualized approach that incorporates the patients concerns and desires will allow a customized treatment plan to be developed during case Presentation. Case presentation tools and communication skills will allow you to get patients to move forward with complex care more effectively.
